

THE BOB CONWAY MEMORIAL AWARD

Bob Conway was a passionate and gentle man who loved life, this town, public education, nature and above all, his children. He worked hard, played hard, contributed to his community and took great delight in being a citizen of the world.

Each year, Bob's family gives an award to a South Kingstown High School senior in his memory and in celebration of the values he held dear....high among them was the idea that the life worth living is the one approached with lightness, passion, spontaneity and joy.

The guy also LOVED SNOW DAYS and so....

- 1. This award is open to all South Kingstown High School seniors
- 2. The money may be spent in any way the recipient sees fit.
- 3. Applicants are to write a paragraph completing the following statement:

“If tomorrow were a snow day, I would....”

- 4. The winner will be chosen by a lottery from among all applicants.
- 5. HAVE FUN!!

Completed applications are to be returned to guidance by April 2, 2012.
